

SPRINGFIELD | Where public art is plentiful, craft beer beckons and river paths are picturesque. Cycle or saunter along the Willamette River. Tour outdoor art and murals. Wander through quaint, downtown shops. See familiar sites from "The Simpsons" TV show. Try a new brew. Photo: Downtown Springfield

VISITOR INFORMATION | Step into our welcoming Springfield and Eugene visitor centers and meet our friendly Adventure Specialists, who can answer questions and offer suggestions, guides and maps.

The Adventure Center in Springfield is a TicketsWest outlet and a great place to grab unique gifts from across the Eugene, Cascades & Coast region. Select federal, state and county passes and permits are for sale at this location only. Free maps, coffee, Wi-Fi and restrooms. Located just off I-5.

EUGENE | Where urban trails are uncrowded, the performing arts unbounded and the eateries uncommon. Walk or run along the river, find peace in the forest, or take in the view from the top of a butte. Then catch a show at one of many unique venues, and pick a place to eat – from fine dining to food carts, the focus is fresh and local. Photo: Pre's Trail, Autzen Stadium

EUGENE, CASCADES & COAST

REAL ADVENTURES. REAL CLOSE.

POWERED BY TRAVEL LANE COUNTY

OREGON COAST | Where iconic bridges and craggy bluffs give way to beautiful beaches and enchanted forests. Explore coastal lakes, sand dunes and tide pools. Hike to historic Heceta Head Lighthouse. See sea lions. Chase the waves. Fly a kite. Watch the sun set into the pounding surf. Photo: Siuslaw River Bridge

FLORENCE | Where the dune buggies are fast and fun. Take a wild and scenic ride. Grab a sandboard and carve your way through North America's largest coastal dunes. Hop on a horse. Go clamming or crabbing. Stroll along the boardwalk. Savor a bowl of chowder. Shop local boutiques. Photo: Oregon Dunes National Recreation area

JUNCTION CITY | Where agriculture and viticulture is the culture, and small-town events make you feel right at home. Cruise the back roads. Go wine tasting. Swing a golf club overlooking valley vineyards. Buy grains, produce and meat straight from the farm. Learn about beekeeping, or sample some honey. Photo: Pfeiffer Winery

COTTAGE GROVE | Where local history is as long as the bike paths. Pedal or walk through six historic covered bridges. Amble along Bohemia Mountain in search of wildflowers. Tour more than 20 outdoor murals. Then settle into small-town Americana and grab a bite to eat. Photo: Mosby Creek Covered Bridge

MCKENZIE RIVER | Where the waterfalls and rapids will quicken your heart and leave you breathless. Hike or bike the magnificent McKenzie River Trail. Scout waterfalls and old growth forests. Fish from the shore, or cast a line from a legendary McKenzie River drift boat. Photo: Proxy Falls

OAKRIDGE | Where you'll find miles of single track, without lots of people. Bring your bike or rent one; there's a trail for everyone. After your downhill ride, swap stories and battle scars over a pint. See Oregon's second-highest single-drop waterfall, then hike or camp at nearby Waldo Lake. Photo: Alpine trail | Image by Bike Magazine
